4.	Chairman's report: Mr D Jeanes was pleased with the Parish Council's contribution to the new porch at the Village Hall, and felt that people in the Village appreciated it. He was also pleased that surplus money in the Parish Council's coffers had been spent on a project that would benefit most people in the Village. He was sorry to have to report a deterioration in the state of the Village Hall finances, but hoped that the community would rally round to help. He regretted the fact that planning issues continue to cause ill-feeling on occasion, but felt that the alternative would be to dispense with the Parish Council's input altogether which, of course, would be unacceptable. He thanked all of the parish councillors for their help and support, likewise the County Councillors and the Clerk.
